NOVEMBER 2026

Initiative to BEAT Cervical Cancer

Volume 3; Issue 11

HPV Vaccination Roundup

INDIA SPOTLIGHT

India's Cervavac Opening Global Doors, Sustaining HPV Vaccination for Generations

India's Cervavac receiving WHO prequalification, opens procurement opportunities for UN agencies and broadening global HPV vaccine choice to help countries sustain routine vaccination programmes for future generations of girls.
Read More

GLOBAL SPOTLIGHT

HPV Vaccine Prices From US$2.80 Helping Gavi-Eligible Countries Plan Ahead

With UNICEF prices from US$2.80 per dose for Gavi-eligible countries, vaccinating pre-adolescent girls continues to be a cost-effective route to cervical cancer elimination in resource-constrained settings worldwide.
Read more

BCC in Action

Elimination Day on 17th November

Cervical Cancer Elimination Day is about global action across communities.
Schools are joining in, survivors are speaking up, and landmarks are lighting up! Across 20 regions of India, 84 BCC member NGOs have joined the global call for cervical cancer elimination many for the first time. #EndCervicalCancer.

WHO's Elimination Day

WHO SAGE strongly backs Single-Dose HPV Vaccination with Expanded Coverage

Read more

Newer HPV Vaccines Offer Broader Protection Against Cervical Cancer

Read more

HPV Vaccination Provides Protection in Pregnancies says Swedish study

Read more

HPV Vaccine resources for use — PreventGlobalHPVCancers.org

Cancer Foundation of India

Beat Cervical Cancer is a network of Indian NGOs initiated and managed by the Cancer Foundation of India with support from the American Cancer Society.

PREVENT GLOBAL HPV CANCERS

You are receiving this monthly newsletter because you are on the Cancer Foundation of India's mailing list.
If you do not wish to receive this newsletter, please email 'NO' to vaccine.cfi@gmail.com.

Email for communication vaccine.cfi@gmail.com